Weekly Recess Report

Magezi Richard

January 2025

1 Week One

This is a report on the first week of recess.

Wednesday January 15, 2025

Introductory session – Head of Department of Computing gave a detailed speech on what recess was all about including how it helps with the given courses being pursued and how it interlinks with the universities vision, mission and motto. Supervisor Mr. Kasole Ahmed briefed us on the rules to be followed during this period.

Thursday January 16, 2025

Recess lectures start- Research and proposal writing was carried out on this day and what was learned what exactly research entails, Credible sources, Data, Concept notes and the reasons for research and proposal writing. An assignment was given on writing a Concept note of a topic of choice.

Friday January 17, 2025

Lecture on tools to be used- There was a lecture on the different tools to be used, their purpose and their advantages. These tools included Google drive, Canva and Google Docs. An assignment to create a concept map was given to the different Groups. More shall be learned in the coming weeks.